

International Disaster Law Course

Sanremo, Italy, 12 – 16 June 2017

The International Institute of Humanitarian Law, in cooperation with the International Federation of Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies and the International Disaster Law Project, and with the support of the Italian Red Cross, will host the 4th International Disaster Law Course from 12 to 16 June 2017.

Course Venue

The International Disaster Law (IDL) Course will be held at the International Institute of Humanitarian Law, Villa Ormond – Corso Cavallotti 113, 18038 Sanremo, Italy, Tel. +39 0184 541848ext205, Fax +39 0184 541600, E-mail: sanremo@iihl.org.

Course Profile

The IDL course will offer participants an opportunity to analyse one of today's foremost legal challenges: the prevention and management of natural and man-made disasters.

Lectures will be delivered by distinguished speakers including Eduardo Valencia-Ospina (Special Rapporteur of the ILC on the Protection of Persons in the Event of Disasters), Walter Kälin (former Representative of the UN Secretary-General on the Human Rights of Internally Displaced Persons), academics, as well as representatives of relevant international and national actors concerned with IDL, such as the IFRC, OCHA, and other relevant stakeholder.

The programme seeks to offer a comprehensive overview of the main practical, humanitarian and military issues related to the legal aspects of disaster prevention and management activities. Topics will be covered using a plenary-based approach complemented by practical exercises designed to test the participants' ability to find outcome oriented solutions through the application of relevant IDL provisions.

Course Directors

Target audience

The programme is tailored towards:

graduate and post-graduate students with an interest in IDL; practitioners (e.g. staff of civil protection departments; staff of Red Cross and Red Crescent societies; NGOs; member of the Armed Forces) involved in disaster management and relief activities; academics; and professionals with an academic background in the areas of law, security studies, international relations, humanitarian assistance or other related fields, eager to expand their knowledge of IDL.

Application

Applicants are kindly requested to complete the form available here <http://www.iihl.org/idlcourse>. Applications will be considered on a rolling basis and prospective participants are therefore encouraged to apply early in order to secure a place. Applications will be reviewed by the Course directors. Unless all places are taken earlier, the final deadline for application is 26 May 2017. The Course is open to a maximum of 35 participants.

Participation fee

The participation fee is € 600 (Euros) and must be paid within 10 days from the notification of selection.

The Course will be taught in English. It is essential that participants have a good command of English in order to be able to follow the lectures, get involved in the practical exercises and participate in the class discussion.

Course Certificate

Participants who have attended all sessions will receive a Certificate of Participation.

Course Materials

Participants will receive a very brief assignment for the peer group meeting to be held on Monday 12nd June.

All course materials and documents required during the course will be provided by the Institute. The Institute has a library on the first floor with over 4,000 volumes (texts, monographs, reports, journals reference materials, CDs and videos) mainly in English, French, Italian, Spanish, Arabic and Russian. Photocopying facilities are also available.

PRACTICAL INFO

Travel and Visa Requirements

Participants will meet their own travel expenses and make all necessary reservations.

All participants requiring a visa are responsible to obtain a multiple entry Schengen visa before their departure. Please note that it can take up to three weeks to obtain a visa. Please be aware that a visa is also required for transit via the United Kingdom and the United States of America. It is not possible to get a visa on arrival at the border.

Arrival/Departure

Sanremo is located in the northern part of Italy, approximately 140 km west of Genoa and 60 km east of Nice, France, where the nearest international airport is located (1 hour drive).

A consolidated shuttle service from Nice Côte d'Azur International Airport will be organised by the Institute on Sunday 11 June for course participants who request it. The cost is 50 Euro each way (100 Euro return).

Please make sure that you inform us of your arrival time well in advance of travel so that you can be included in the shuttle transfer list.

Please note that participants may have to wait for a period whilst participants are consolidated from a number of arriving/departing flights.

Insurance

The organizers do not provide medical insurance and cannot cover medical fees. All participants are required to purchase international medical insurance in their home country before leaving.

Dress code

During the Course participants may dress informally.

Currency

The Euro is the only currency accepted in Italy. We strongly advise participants to change their money before arriving in Sanremo. Major credit cards (e.g. Visa, MasterCard) are accepted.

Telephone Communications

All international and local phone calls are at the participants' own expenses. All hotels have international telephone facilities, but purchase of a telephone card is recommended, as they offer more affordable rates. International calls: 00 + country code + area code + number.

Internet

At the Institute, a computer room is available with access to Internet only (open during office hours). A free wireless internet connection is available for those wishing to bring their own devices.

Secretariat

Information and support can be obtained from Ms Patricia Panizzi (phone +39 0184 541848, ext. 205, fax +39 0184 541600, e-mail panizzi@iihl.org).
